Gordon Max Thomas

Gordon Max Thomas, 58, of Orem, Utah, died Saturday, April 22, 1995, at the Utah Valley Regional Medical Center in Provo of cardiac arrest and complications of diabetes.

He was born March 27, 1937 in Provo, Utah, the son of Max and Verda Batchelor Thomas. He married Janice White September 5, 1963 in the Manti LDS Temple.

He graduated from Spanish Fork High School, Brigham Young University, and did graduate work at the University of Utah. He served a mission to England from 1961-1963, where he served as assistant to the president.

Gordon went to work for First Security Bank in 1963, working in many capacities, including Vice President of Operations. He took a medical retirement in 1988 because of his health.

An active member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, he served as a High Priest group leader, Bishop, and as the first Stake President of the Orem Utah South Central Stake (Lakeridge). Upon his release, he served as District Chairman of the Utah National Parks Council of the Boy Scouts of America. An avid supporter of the Boy Scouts, he donated family land and created a scout preserve called Camelot. An accomplished pianist and musician, he composed a song for scouts called The Scout Law Song. He received the Silver Beaver award in 1993.

Gordon is survived by his wife, of Orem; three sons and six daughters: Michael J. and Pam Thomas, American Fork; Curtis M. Thomas, Ontario, CA; Diane C. Thomas, Patricia and Scott Walker, Jana K. Thomas, Lisa A. Thomas, Jennifer M. Thomas, Nathan K. Thomas, and Brenda L. Thomas, all of Orem. He is also survived by six granddaughters: Karissa, Tasha, Natalia, Karlie, Kelsey, and Annেকে; his mother, Verda Thomas, of Provo; and two sisters: Marilyn Bullock, New Castle, CO; and Barbara Kelley, Orem. He was preceded in death by his father.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday, April 26, at 12 noon in the Lakeridge Stake Center, 158 E 1100 South, Orem. Friends may call Tuesday from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Walker Sanderson Funeral Home, 600 E 800 North, Orem, and Wednesday at the stake center from 10:45 to 11:45 a.m. prior to the services. Burial will be in the Spanish Fork City Cemetery.
